THURSDAY EVENING NOV 24 1892.

SHOT AN EAGLE IN MID OCEAN, -Storms it the English Chuncel have been reported by all vessels arriving at Philadelphia from British and continental ports. Vessels have been driven hundreds of miles out of their courses by the fury of the gales, and flocks of land by the fury of the gales, and flocks of land birds have been seen in mid-ocean.

Captain Matzon, of the German steamship Citania, arrived at Philadelphia Tuesday u ght from Hamburg, and reports that on November 5, when 500 miles to the westward of the Scilly Islands, a large eagle, which had o Hently been driven to sea by a storm, saoped down on the vessel's deck, seized a pot cat in its talous and flew up to the main gulf, where, in its desparate hunger, it dis-emboweled the mouser and feasted until a rifle shot brought it to the main deck, a dead bird.

The trophy was brought to port as a nechento of one of the stormiest voyages which Captain Matzen ever encountered. The bird measured nearly five feet from tip to tip.

Man Dogs .- About three weeks ago a fine shepherd dog belonging to Captain John 1-Lacy, this county, ran mad and bit a horse and two oxen also belonging to the captain and two oxen also belonging to the captain. The horse and one oxen became rabid; the first was killed on the 5th and the latter the 18th of this month.

The same dog bit six fine hounds belonging to Mr. Marmaduke Lacy, all of which were killed. It is reported that other dogs were bitten.—Fredericksburg Star.

A Culpeper correspondent to the Charlotteville Progress says: Culpeper is infested with mad-dogs. Mr. J. H. Nalls was bitten by a supposed mad dog last week, and went to the mad stone in Fanquier county Monday, but the stone failed to stick.

The contributors to the REVIEW are the men and women to whom the world looks for the most authoritative statements on the subjects of the day. No other periodical can point to such a succession of distinguished writers. The list is a roll of the people who are making the history, controlling the affairs, and leading the opinion of the age, such as Mr. Gladstone, the Prime Minister of England; Mr. Blaine; Signor Crispi, ex-Prime Minister of Italy; Baron Hirsch; H. R. H. the Count of Paris; Cardinal Gibbous; Bishops Potter, Doane, Mallalieu, Foss, etc., esc. The time when these subjects are treated of by the contributors is the very time when the subjects are in the public mind—not a mouth or two after people have ceased to think of them. The promptness with which the REVIEW furnishes its readers with the most authoritative information upon the topics of the day is one of its most valuable features.

Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman."
